If your article has been accepted for publication, each author must sign a copyright agreement form after reading the Explanatory Notes below and send the signed forms, in electronic format, to the Editor, together with the final version of the article.

So that we can ensure both the widest dissemination and protection of material published in International Journal of Quality Research (IJQR), we ask authors to assign copyright in their articles, including abstracts, to Publisher. This enables us to ensure copyright protection against infringement, and to disseminate your article, and our journal, as widely as possible.

- 1. In consideration of the undertaking set out in paragraph 2, and upon acceptance for publication in the IJQR, [insert the full names of all authors, reflecting the name order given in the article] hereafter 'the Author' hereby assigns and transfers to publisher, the copyright in and to [insert article title] hereafter 'the Article' by the Author to be published in International Journal of Quality Research hereafter ('the Journal'). This assignment provides publisher the sole right and responsibility to publish the Article, including the right to sub-license publishing or distribution rights to the Article as may be appropriate, in both printed and electronic form; the Article may be published in printed, online, CD-ROM, microfiche or in other media formats.

- 2. In consideration of this assignment, publisher hereby undertakes to prepare and publish the Article named in paragraph 1 in the Journal, subject only to its right to refuse publication as provided in paragraph 5 or if there are other reasonable grounds; in such case publisher reverts and assigns to the Author any and all copyright and other rights in the Article otherwise assigned to it under this Agreement.
3. The Editor of the Journal is empowered to make such editorial changes as may be necessary to make the Article suitable for publication. Every effort will be made to consult the Author if substantive changes are required.
4. The Author warrants that the Article is the Author's original work, it has not been published before either in full or in part and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that the Article contains no libelous or unlawful statements and that it in no way infringes the rights of others, nor it is in breach of any Serbian law, and that the Author, as the owner of the copyright, is entitled to make this assignment. If the Author is the Corresponding Author*, the Author warrants that where s/he enters into any correspondence about or agrees to any changes to the Article s/he is authorized to act on behalf of any co-authors in doing so and has provided full and accurate information relating to them where required on the understanding that no further changes can be made after signature of this Agreement.

Author Agreement: Explanatory Notes

Our policy is to acquire copyright for all contributions, for the following reasons:

- ownership of copyright by a central body helps to ensure maximum international protection against infringement and/or plagiarism;
- requests for permission to reproduce articles in books, course packs, electronic reserve or for library loan can be handled centrally, relieving authors of a time-consuming administrative burden;
- the demand for research literature in electronic form can be met efficiently, with proper safeguards for authors, editors and journal owners.

Once accepted for publication, your Article will be published in the Journal, and will be stored and distributed electronically, in order to meet increasing library and faculty demand and to deliver it as part of the Journal, as an individual article or as part of a larger collection of articles to meet the specific requirements of a particular market. By signing this Author Agreement and assigning copyright you agree to publisher making such arrangements.

The Author has the moral right to be identified as the Author wherever the Article is published, and to object to its derogatory treatment or distortion. Publisher encourages assertion of this right; it represents best publishing practice and is an important safeguard for all authors. Paragraph 4 above asserts the Author's moral rights, as required by the Act.

The Journal will permit the Author to use the Article for non-commercial purposes after publication in these ways:

- Posting the Accepted Manuscript on the Author's personal web pages and/or institutional repositories and/or subject repositories without embargo.
- Using the Article in further research and in courses that the Author is teaching;
- Incorporating the Article content in other works by the Author.

Publisher reserves the right to refuse to publish your Article where its publication creates – or it reasonably believes may create – legal liability, or where circumstances come to light that were not known to the Editor, including prior publication of the whole or part of the Article, conflict of interest, manifest error, etc. Publisher is the ultimate custodian of academic quality and integrity, and will ensure that this will be done only in exceptional circumstances and on reasonable grounds. In such circumstances the Article will be returned to the Author together with all rights in it.

Thank you for reading these notes. If you require more detailed information, go to International Journal of Quality Research web site. This assignment will enable publisher to ensure that the Article will reach the optimum readership.
